On motion of Senator Eide, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Eide, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

Senator Parlette moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8693

By Senators Parlette, Ericksen, Delvin, Carrell, Honeyford, Swecker, Conway, Hill, Kastama, Haugen, Shin, Keiser, Nelson, Becker, Hatfield, Sheldon, and Baumgartner

WHEREAS, In 1951, the federal Office of Defense Mobilization requested that aluminum production be increased in the United States for wartime uses; and

WHEREAS, The federal government selected Alcoa to construct the first post-World War II smelter on the banks of the Columbia River outside Malaga, Washington because of the abundance of affordable hydropower and the willingness of the Bonneville Power Administration and Chelan County Public Utility District to partner with Alcoa, as well as the support from community leaders and the Wenatchee World; and

WHEREAS, Under the impetus of national defense and consumer demands, Alcoa pushed to complete construction of the Wenatchee Works aluminum smelter in the shortest amount of time possible, installing the infrastructure for two prebake carbon potlines within 13 months; and

WHEREAS, For 60 years, Alcoa employees have kept the smelter operating successfully, today operating three potlines and directly contributing more than 52 million dollars to Chelan and Douglas counties in payroll and benefits for 460 employees and creating an additional 1,300 indirect jobs; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the years, Alcoa Wenatchee Works has continually worked to upgrade safety and environmental systems, to improve air and water quality, reducing its carbon footprint by over 25% since the 1990s and setting plant safety records during its 2011 third potline restart; and

WHEREAS, Alcoa Wenatchee Works is committed to being an outstanding community partner through financial and volunteer support of nonprofits, schools, and other community organizations in the Wenatchee Valley, providing more than 125,000 volunteer hours locally and contributing more than 1.4 million dollars in Alcoa Foundation grants and other local giving since 2002; being recognized along with its sister plant in Ferndale, by the state chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals as the 2011 Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation for its history of community partnerships; and

WHEREAS, The 460 men and women of Alcoa Wenatchee Works work around the clock 365 days a year to consistently produce more than 140,000 metric tons of high quality, recyclable aluminum ingot that is used in products ranging from aluminum bats and bicycles, to strong and light weight automotive and airplane parts; and

WHEREAS, On June 26, 2012, at 10:14 a.m., Alcoa Wenatchee Works will celebrate the 60th anniversary of its first aluminum ingot poured;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate officially recognize and congratulate Alcoa Wenatchee Works and its employees for 60 years of community and economic contribution to the Wenatchee Valley and the state of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transferred by the Secretary of the Senate to Wenatchee Works Plant Manager Don Walton; Wenatchee Aluminum Trades Council President Kelley Woodard; and to Rufus Woods, Publisher of the Wenatchee World.

Senator Parlette spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

By Senators Kohl-Welles, Swecker, Ranker, Ericksen, Murray, Sheldon, Kilmer, Regala, Chase, Kline, Harper, Eide, Fraser, Shin, Hatfield, Tom, Rolfes, Kastama, Haugen, Keiser, and Conway

WHEREAS, The Washington state commercial fishing fleet begins leaving in March for the Pacific and Alaskan waters, and the Blessing of the Fleet will occur March 18, 2012, at Fisherman's Terminal in Ballard; and

WHEREAS, This is the 84th year that the Ballard First Lutheran Church has held the blessing; and

WHEREAS, The Washington state commercial fishing fleet begins leaving Blaine waters in May, and the Blessing of the Fleet will occur at Saw Tooth Dock in Blaine Harbor, May 6, 2012; and

WHEREAS, The Washington state commercial fishing fleet is one of the world's largest distant water fleets; and

WHEREAS, The commercial fishing industry directly and indirectly employs thousands of people and is one of the largest industries in Washington state; and

WHEREAS, The harvest annually contributes significantly to the Washington state economy; and

WHEREAS, The life of a fisher is fraught with danger and hardship that most people will never face; and

WHEREAS, Strength and courage are requirements for anyone who chooses to work on the sea, braving the elements in order to harvest the ocean's resources; and

WHEREAS, The men and women who work on fishing boats, at times in dangerous circumstances, deserve our admiration, thanks, and, when tragedy strikes, our remembrance; and

WHEREAS, Too often fishers lose their lives, devastating not only the close-knit community of fishing families in our region, but also our entire state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate extend its condolences to the families and friends of all our fishers who have lost their lives at sea, wish the entire commercial fishing fleet a safe and prosperous season, and express its hope that all of our fishers will return home safely to their families, friends, and communities.

SENATE RESOLUTION 8683

By Senators Ranker, Morton, Hatfield, and Delvin

WHEREAS, The state of Washington is home to a diverse and unique array of waterfowl, fish, and wildlife species, from orca whales to spotted owls and leopard frogs to American Widgeons, which are deemed vulnerable natural treasures that must be preserved and protected for generations to come; and

FORTY SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2012

2012 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, It is one of the fundamental responsibilities of Washington's elected leaders, and all stakeholders, to provide sound stewardship for the preservation, restoration, and rehabilitation of habitat that has been lost or degraded due to development, pollution, climate change, or invasive species; and

WHEREAS, Ducks Unlimited has long been a welcome and substantial partner in protecting Washington's native flora and fauna by conserving, restoring, and rehabilitating their habitat and crafting sustainable hunting and fishing and wildlife-viewing opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Ducks Unlimited, through science-based environmental planning, has initiated, developed, and delivered a wide range of projects that have helped retain and enhance the physical integrity of a considerable portion of the Pacific Northwest, thereby benefiting a wealth of waterfowl and wildlife; and

WHEREAS, For 75 years Ducks Unlimited has approached the challenges, both natural and man-made, that impact our waterfowl, fish, and other wildlife resources, and their native habitats, with careful consideration to ensure the survival of all species; and

WHEREAS, It is incumbent upon the state of Washington to nurture this beneficial relationship with Ducks Unlimited so together we leave an enduring legacy of successful environmental management; and

WHEREAS, Ducks Unlimited is celebrating 75 years of exemplary conservation work and the state of Washington, as a committed leader and diligent guardian of the environment, is pleased to commemorate this milestone anniversary so it will forever serve as a reminder that we must all be ever-vigilant in identifying opportunities to preserve our precious natural heritage;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington state Senate recognize and honor the 75th anniversary of Ducks Unlimited; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Washington state chapter of Ducks Unlimited.

SENATE RESOLUTION 8698

By Senators Honeyford, Delvin, and Hewitt

WHEREAS, Benton REA, headquartered in Prosser, Washington with branch offices in West Richland and Toppenish, celebrated its 75th anniversary at the annual meeting on February 4, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Benton REA is the oldest operating member/consumer-owned electric utility in Benton and Yakima counties, which is an amazing accomplishment; and

WHEREAS, Benton REA was formed on April 19, 1937, with the signing of the Articles of Incorporation which were subsequently filed with the Washington Secretary of State on April 23, 1937; and

WHEREAS, The first electricity was delivered to 89 members in May of 1938 over 43 miles of newly constructed power line with a plant value of 40,000 dollars. These new members used an average of 27 kilowatt hours per month; and

WHEREAS, The first annual meeting of Benton REA was held September 17, 1938; and

WHEREAS, On this 75th anniversary of Benton REA, over 15,700 accounts in Benton, Yakima, and Lewis counties received electrical service as member/owners of Benton REA; and

WHEREAS, With a total plant value of over 100 million dollars, and more than 2,100 miles of power line, Benton REA is now the third largest electric cooperative in Washington State; and

WHEREAS, With equity of over 50 percent and recognized as being among the cooperatives in the State and Nation with the least number of consumer outages, Benton REA member/owners have reason to celebrate;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the success of Benton REA over the past 75 years as a testament of what can be accomplished through cooperation and working together to achieve a common goal.

SENATE RESOLUTION 8699

By Senator Honeyford

WHEREAS, This year marks the one hundredth year of service provided to the Sunnyside community by C. Speck Motors. Four generations of the Speck family have worked to provide automobile service to the community; and

WHEREAS, The Speck family came to Sunnyside in 1908. Clayton Speck, an enterprising young business man, worked in the restaurant business for several years before turning to the automobile industry. He started the Sunnyside garage in 1911, and then the Speck-Rowland Garage the following year. The garage sold Buick and GMC Trucks, and eventually added a Chevrolet division. The dealership became C. Speck Motors in 1920; and

WHEREAS, Even during the great depression Clayton Speck added a new dealership facility. Though he was criticized at the time for that decision, Speck was able to keep the shop running by manufacturing parts for the military; and

WHEREAS, Clayton Speck is remembered as a man of great character and generosity, contributing to orphanages and other community projects; and

WHEREAS, Clayton's son James R. Speck left the University of Washington in 1950 to run the dealership when Clayton became ill. James continued to run the dealership until 1975. James continued his father's tradition of helping the community by supporting activities such as American Legion baseball, little league baseball, and the school Patrol. He also served as President of Washington State Auto Dealers Association in 1966; and

WHEREAS, In 1975, James C. Speck became the third generation to run C. Speck Motors. He served on the General Motors Dealers Advisory Board in 1985. He added a Nissan franchise to the dealership in 1985, and added a new showroom; and

WHEREAS, In 1994, Kathryn Speck, James C. Speck's daughter, began working for the dealership. She became the Dealer Principal in 1998. She moved the dealership to a larger location, and it is now one of the largest in the area;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate thank and congratulate the Speck family and C. Speck Motors for providing one hundred years of service to the Sunnyside area; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Speck family.

Senator Honeyford spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.
